Voters beat Bay bond issues for street repairs

For new officials

Swearing in is at 3 p.m. Friday

Paths of office will be administered at 3 p.m. Friday at the courthouse to all county officials elected this year who will assume office Jan. 1. Hancock County Clerk Frank M. Alexander will officiate.

The swearing in was moved up in Hancock County after an opinion from Assistant Attorney General John L. Stone indicated this was possible because New Year's Day falls on the first Monday of January, normal time for this ritual.

Stone's opinion appears in the December issue of Mississippi Supervisor and Hancock County Clerk magazine. He had been asked by a supervisor if incoming supervisors and other county and local officials could have their bonds approved and be sworn in at 3 a.m. Dec. 28 because of the Monday conflict. Stone concurred this action could be taken at a recessed or adjourned meeting of the board.

The retiring board of supervisors had recessed until 10 a.m. Friday, Dec. 29, to clear up all outstanding bills. They have a public hearing at 7 p.m. on proposed revisions to the county sub-division ordinance. Chancery Clerk Marie Quintini was administered the oath of office Tuesday afternoon by Circuit Clerk Lamar Otis prior to entering Oschner Foundation Hospital in New Orleans for tests Wednesday morning. She did not expect to be here Friday.

Any elected officials absent Friday can be sworn in later by either Otis or Miss Quintini. Bonds of four officials were (Cont. on Page 8.)

Bay St. Louis voters rejected City Hall's $975,000 bond package to restore the city's battered streets in light of falling Saturday.

The two propositions which needed endorsement by 60 percent of those voting failed to win even a majority. Opponents of the plan carried all three precincts, racking up the highest majority in the newly annexed West Bay precinct where little work was proposed with the bond proceeds.

Proposition No. 1—a $475,000 general obligation issue for street work—drew 626 nay votes and 538 ayes. No. 2—$500,000 in general obligation bonds to supplement the other funds under a special act of the 1966 legislature—lost 612 to 525.

Less than 1,200—or about one-third—of the approximate 3,400 qualified voters went to the polls, Commissioner of Utilities J. Cyril Glover observed that the administration had been able to convert 130 votes the plan would have carried.

Both Glover and Commissioner of Finance Warren Traub have begun studies to determine what course can now be pursued to restore the streets torn in the utilities improvement program started two years ago. Glover expressed hope they might have something concrete shortly after the first of the year. No comment was available from Mayor John A. Scalfide who left after voting Saturday to spend the holiday season with his daughter and her family in New Jersey.

Returns were canvassed by the city election committee Saturday night after ballots were counted within an hour after the polls closed. They showed: Proposition No. 1 Yes No 305 325 South Bay 206 228 North Bay (Cont. on Page 8.)

Patrolman Kenny is crash victim

Final rites were Saturday for William Patrick (Bill) Kenny, 43, assistant inspector for the Mississippi Highway Patrol, District 8, who was killed early Friday morning in a traffic accident at Long Beach.

Regulation mass was at Our Lady of the Gulf Church, McGr. James J. Hannon officiating. Interment was in St. Mary's cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Elsie Carver Kenny, and two sons, Michael and David, all of Bay St. Louis.

A 17-year veteran of the highway patrol, Kenny was born May 18, 1924 and was a graduate of St. Stanislaus College and the University of Mississippi and was a U.S. Air Force B-17 and B-29 air gunner in World War II.

Inspector Kenny was a member of the Knights of Columbus; American Legion; St. Stanislaus College Sideline Club; Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church; Holy Name Society and the Mississippi-Tennessee Law Enforcement Officers Assn.

Out of town dignitaries attending the funeral included Highway Safety Commissioner T.E. Birdsong; Chief of Patrol A.D. Morgan; Administrative Assistant Charles Markin, Director Giles C. Risher, state police academy; Inspector Robert Burton, Jackson.

Fallbearers were Martin L. Fulk, chief inspector; Leon Burton, assistant inspector; and Patrolmen Joe Price, Bobby Parker, Pete Pope and Leonard Winstead.

Kenny was killed when his car hit a tree about 12:40 a.m. Friday near the intersection of U.S. 90 and Trautman Avenue, Long Beach.

Originally thought to be a one-car accident the incident led to a full scale investigation after an unidentified person reported to Long Beach Patrolman J.L. Hooker that an automobile without lights had been observed traveling on Trautman Avenue about the time of the accident.

After a search of the accident scene netted pieces of a second automobile and officers had received further information, a 1967 Mustang was located and Ronald David Henze, 30, of Long Beach, placed under arrest. He was booked at the Harrison County Jail on charges (Cont. on Page 8.)

It all looks so good

When you shop for last minute presents difficulty is to remember reason for being in toy department and not spend all day playing with merchandise. Kenneth and Harold Bounds wrestled with problem Saturday and tried to keep things relative by buying last minute presents first and then utilizing balance of time to see how things work.

GE shuffles staff, MTF to test seven

The corporate branch office of General Electric Co. has been moved from downtown Piquette to leased space in the McDonald Building in Bay St. Louis.

In consolidation of personnel, GE has also moved most of its Relations (Personnel) Section of General Electric, Mississippi Test Support Department, from Bay St. Louis to the Mississippi Test Facility. Those remaining here are responsible for recruiting and personnel selection and development work.

Completion of construction and activation work, and achievement of full operation status at NASA's MTF is making possible the relocation of some administrative offices and personnel of General Electric from leased facilities in Piquette and Bay St. Louis to the test facility proper, according to Leo Galley, GE public information officer.

Galley said that during the last several months it has been possible to return a portion of the GE personnel, largely those engaged in finance operation, to MTF from the former garment factory in Piquette. He said the plant was leased and removed in June, 1965, to provide additional office space during the peak of production and activation at MTF. The McDonald Building in Bay St. Louis was leased at the same time.

Still in Piquette are the GE payroll, accounting and purchasing units. Jackson M. Balch, NASA's MTF manager, said 1967 was a most significant year for all people on site and one in which MTF became operational with (Cont. on Page 8.)

We most certainly hope that all, including your reporter, who were looking Christmas Eve to July-like temperatures were happy when Santa's arrival was preceded by a chilly Arctic blast. A drop of 50 degrees in just a little over 24 hours should have been enough of a change to shock everyone into frantic last minute activity.

Merry bond issue folks

And what a time it was! As if just being the weekend before Christmas hadn't made things sufficiently hectic, there was the added joy of the direct bond election. Proprietors of package stores were most upset at the choice of voting date, as it rendered them completely out of action on what are normally the busiest two days of the year.

Wallace Colley, newest proprietor of a spirit dispenser establishment and his next door neighbor Matt-Foto had some troubles when mid-week deluges completely eliminated the parking lot.

Honeymooning in Nassau

Lucky newlyweds Margaret and Terry S. afflied honeymoon in Nassau after their marriage was impressively solemnized at high noon Saturday at Our Lady of the Gulf church. The bride's full length gown was fashioned along classical, simple lines with re-embroidered deep pearls on the lace bodice. Her attendants wore dark green velvet with lace accents on the sleeves and carried one huge white rose upon a long stem. Their headpieces were tiny white rosebuds with green velvet ribbons matching their frocks. The fabulous Shannon Loppin home in Mississippi City was the setting of the reception. Lil (Mrs. Mark D.) Horne, mother of the bride, chose a white while Mrs. Scalfi wore a dress of mint green. Serving tables throughout the large home were decorated in seasonal flowers and greens. Just a few from the Bay been chatting were Fern and Alvin Genin; Clara (Mrs. George) Seuzeneau and daughter; Mabel Green and her daughter, Jeanne; Margaret and Mae Knapp and son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, visiting here from Egypt. Also Mary and Larry Lagarde and daughters; Edmund Lahey and his lovely, Nancy Jan Vime and a number of others.

Edmund, by the way, passed on the good news that his grandmother, Rita Tognotti, is much improved after suffering a stroke at her home last week. However, her daughter, Frances, still spends much time at her bedside at Hancock General.

We look ahead into 1968

Now that we really do have just a little less than 365 days before Yuletide, 1968, it's time to look ahead to what's upcoming. The 200 person dinner to formally celebrate newly inaugurated officials of Waveland Men's Civic Association will be a first in the area. Tommy Kidd and Buddy Laddson are co-chairmen of the affair to be held Tuesday at St. Clare's Parish hall. They've planned quite a program with Lt. Governor Charles Sullivan as guest of honor.

Grand opening

Son of skipping around, but as Charlie Cox's most successful open-office occurred after we'd completed last week's column, we'll give a detailed account this week. The new clinic is large, beautifully decorated and decor in examining rooms is pink in the first and blue in the second. Charlie insists the equipment just happened to come in those hues, but we prefer to think of them as his and hers. Lovely flower arrangements were set over the place, and out-of-this-world food and drink were served. Just a few who began arriving at 2 p.m. (and some remained 'til after 10) included the hostess, Evelyn Cox, wearing a most becoming gold frock; pretty nurse, Jeanne (Mrs. Donald) Camp and Deanie (Mrs. Jimmy) Austin, assisted in serving, Rita and Sonny Wolfe, Bobbie and Henry Maggio, Earline and Walter Russo, Marilyn and Frank Hille, Dr. Andy Martinovich, who crossed the street to welcome his new neighbor; Rose and John Rutherford and Betty Romanoff. Also Marion Olestad, Nancy and Lucien Cox, Jill and Gerald Cox, Buddy Dodson.

Ames Kergosien, Penny and David Treutel, Lois and Ed Morgan, and many, many who came and went before and after we arrived and left.

Around town

Mr. and Mrs. George Stutzor most certainly can't be held responsible for the frigid weather, as they arrived here from St. Petersburg, Fla. to spend the holidays with their son-in-law and daughter Shirley, and Hank Stockmann and children.

Maybe Sandra and Roger Schary brought the northern with them when they flew in from Great Falls, Mont. to visit her parents, Verdelle and Vernon Laddner, sister, Darlene, and brother, Doug.

Sue and Bob Harvey are among those expecting their first child. The new little Harvey is slated to put in an appearance in July.

Our Anglo (Mrs. Jake) Morreale is hale and hearty, believe it or not, but she's been too busy replacing a loose man hole cover in front of her de-Montluzin St. home to get into too much difficulty.

Gift stag

Most 'stags at 9 had drunk their fill at Margaret Hadden and Shirley Whitlow's first Stag Night last Friday, at the Sea Chest on U.S. 90. The affair was for men only, although Laurie Poindester was on hand to assist the gentlemen in making the proper selection for their wives.

Jill (Mrs. Gerald) Cox gave herself a most becoming new frosted cologne for Christmas. Lee (Mrs. Chuck) McCoy asks that we send greetings to all from the McCoy's, all but snowbound in Fayette, Ark.

Odds and ends

Elinor Whitson also came to life and enclosed a 'til to all in her Christmas card. She reports that she, Bob and Suzy are fine and just may go on to Hawaii on his next assignment.

Our very ambitious new Waveland resident, Mr. Aloysius Jenny, outdid himself with colorful seasonal decorations. Anyone who hasn't driven by his Central Avenue home after dark, should remedy this, and admire his fixings before they're removed to make way for Carnival's purple and gold.

Ailing backs

A sudden rash of back ailments seem to have sprung up in the past few days. Melvin Barnes was hospitalized and put into traction after injuring his back last week; E.J. Marengo is walking very slowly and only with the aid of a cane, and Tommy Karl was under doctor's care for a similar ailment.

Jo (Mrs. Walter) Cox hosted a n' egg nog fete at her home on Friday night.

Lois and Ed Morgan entertained at an informal open house

We care

Every year, we make the same resolutions!

Because every year, no matter how well we did the year before, our objectives are essentially the same.

To make A&P a friendly courteous store for you.

To be fair and honest in our pricing and labeling.

To sell only quality products we can fully guarantee.

To do everything possible to bring you the most good food for the least amount of money.

To prove we care about you.

We think we did pretty well in '67.

We'll be trying even harder in '68.

Here's a prediction:

When '68 comes to a close, we still won't be satisfied and we'll try harder in '69 and '79 and '89 and 1999.

We don't think we can ever be good enough for you.

As far as the summer dog shows are concerned, the principal effect of the race changes is that he will have to put 5 cents in stamps on a ticket in the future instead of 3 cents, 10 cents on an all-day ticket instead of 8, and 5 cents on a postcard rather than 4 cents.

Also hit by the higher rates will be breeders who must pay the other classes of mail postage.

The bulk rate to clubs and the rate for books and records sent by mail, which come under fourth class, will also be much greater.

On a national basis, the increased rates are expected to bring the department's annual revenue to $5.9 billion, as compared with $5.0 billion last year. That amount is equivalent to $29.50 for every person in the country.
